

IMPORTANT FPC MEETINGS DURING RLM

| Meeting | Day | Time |
|---|-----|----------------------------|
| Federal Legislative and Political Forum | | 7-May-23 8:00am – 9:30am |
| FPC Lobby Salon 1 - Senate Republicans | | 7-May-23 9:30am-10:30am |
| FPC Lobby Salon 2 - Senate Democrats | | 7-May-23 9:30am-10:30am |
| FPC Lobby Salon 3 - House Democrats | | 7-May-23 9:30am-10:30am |
| FPC Lobby Salon 4- House Republicans | | 7-May-23 9:30am-10:30am |
| FPC Advocacy Academy (New FPCs) | | 7-May-23 11:00am –12:00pm |
| FPC Roundtable | | 7-May-23 1:45pm-3:45pm |
| The Advocacy Scoop | | 7-May-22 4:00pm – 5:00pm |
| Federal Political Coordinator Reception | | 8-May-22 6:00pm – 8:00pm |
| NAR General Session | | 8-May-22 8:00am – 9:30am |
| FPC Advisory Committee | | 9-May-22 10:00am – 12:00pm |
| FPC Lounge | | 7,8,9-May-22 8:00am-4:00pm |

FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE AND POLITICAL FORUM

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

Federal Legislative & Political Forum: How Banking and Institutional Investors are Influencing the American Dream of Homeownership

Join us as two of the nation's top economists break down the complex role of banking and institutional investors in the housing market, including the impacts on housing affordability and generational wealth building. Doug Holtz-Eakin, former director of the Congressional Budget Office, and Dana Peterson, chief economist of The Conference Board, will examine the current economic outlook and share their perspectives on what's coming next in banking policy – and what it means for the future of homeownership.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? Yes

Planned Speakers? Yes

Doug Holtz-Eakin, former director of the Congressional Budget Office, and Dana Peterson, chief economist of The Conference Board

Action Items? No

FPC LOBBYIST SALONS

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

FPCs will break into different groups based on party and chamber (House R's and House D's, Senate R's and Senate D's) where they will be briefed by their NAR lobbyists and

IMPORTANT FPC MEETINGS DURING RLM

NAR Political Directors on the 2023 NAR Legislative Priorities and specifically on how to engage with Members of Congress at the REALTOR National Block Party at Nationals Stadium on May 9, 2023.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? No

Planned Speakers? Yes

Action Items? No

FPC ADVOCACY ACADEMY

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

During this meeting, the 140+ new FPCs will gather for interactive training with Hill staffers on how best to conduct a meeting on the Hill and best practices for carrying out quality meetings back in the district. FPCs will review how to be an important resource to their Member of Congress and learn what it means to engage with legislative offices as a grassroots key contact in a meaningful way throughout the year. NAR Political Directors will be on hand for questions and Victoria Givens will be presenting alongside our partners The Congressional Management Foundation, throughout the meeting.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? No

Planned Speakers? Yes

Action Items? No

FEDERAL POLITICAL COORDINATORS (FPC) ROUNDTABLE

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

FPCs will gather for their annual Roundtable to partake in training, networking and valuable discussion before meeting their Members of Congress at the REALTOR National Block Party on May 9. NAR President, Kenny Parcell will award two deserving FPCs the 2023 Meritorious Service Award. The group will hear from Will Dunham of Speaker Kevin McCarthy's office and Christopher Randle of Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell's office on their observations around their boss' approach to leadership, their main priorities as leaders, and their working relationship with Leadership members across the aisle. They will also address where they see the NAR 2023 priority advocacy issues going in 2023. FPCs will also hear from historian and Pulitzer prize winner, Joseph Ellis on his perspective as a historian regarding current events and temperatures in Washington. Doyle Yates, Chair of the FPC Advisory Committee will MC the meeting.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? Yes

IMPORTANT FPC MEETINGS DURING RLM

Planned Speakers? Yes

Action Items? No

FPC Advisory Committee

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

The FPC Advisory Committee will hear from a panel of NAR's Lobbyists on the RLM talking points and outlook/endeavors for the remainder of the year around in-district advocacy with FPCs and engagement on Capitol Hill. The Committee will also get a 2023 REALTOR® Party Committee update from Kurt Thompson (MA), the REALTOR® Party Member Involvement Liaison. The Committee will then hold "Brainstorming Breakouts" with stories from the field on successes and struggles to date.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? No

Planned Speakers? No

Action Item? No

FPC LOUNGE

Staff Executive: Victoria Givens

The FPC Lounge will be offered again this year a place for FPCs to mingle, snack, file field reports and conduct meetings in the convention center. Regular refreshments will be available all day as well as access to laptops and printers.

Potentially Sensitive Issues? No

Planned Speakers? No

Action Items? No

.